Cookie Policy

What is a Cookie?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your PC, phone or other web enabled device when you visit the Gymnastics Ireland website. They are not harmful and do not contain any personal or confidential information such as your home address, date of birth or credit card details.

A cookie asks your browser to be stored on your device in order to remember information about you, such as your language preference or login information. Those cookies are set by us and called first-party cookies. We also use third-party cookies - which are cookies from a domain different than the domain of this website - for our ticketing system and marketing efforts.

How are cookies used?

Cookies are needed to help provide you with a quick, responsive and personalised web experience. Cookies allow the website to remember actions that you have performed on the site, your preferences and the pages you have visited. They also tell the site that you have returned. Some aspects of the website cannot function effectively without using cookies.

How does the Gymnastics Ireland website use cookies?

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you which amount to a request for services, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in or filling in forms. You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but some parts of the site will not then work. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information.

Performance Cookies

These cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources so we can measure and improve the performance of our site. They help us to know which pages are the most and least popular and see how visitors move around the site. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous. If you do not allow these cookies we will not know when you have visited our site, and will not be able to monitor its performance

Functional Cookies or Third party cookies

These cookies enable the website to provide enhanced functionality and personalisation. They may be set by us or by third party providers whose services we have added to our pages e.g. Future Ticketing. If you do not allow these cookies then some or all of these services may not function properly.

Targeting Cookies

These cookies may be set through our site by our advertising partners. They may be used by those companies to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant adverts on other sites. They do not store directly personal information but are based on uniquely identifying your browser and internet device. If you do not allow these cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising.

Social Media Cookies

These cookies are set by a range of social media services that we have added to the site to enable you to share our content with your friends and networks. They are capable of tracking your browser across other sites and building up a profile of your interests. This may impact the content and messages you see on other websites you visit. If you do not allow these cookies you may not be able to use or see these sharing tools.

Managing your cookie preferences

Our website uses cookies to improve your browsing experience and provide information we believe might be of interest to you. When visiting our website you have the option of clicking “Accept All Cookies” to agree to the storing of cookies on your device to enhance site navigation, analyse site usage, and assist in our marketing efforts or you can choose “Cookie Settings” to manage your cookie preferences. This option will display a navigation panel on your screen where you can learn about the cookies we use, their function and choose whether you want to enable or disable them. You can access the Cookie Settings whenever you wish to change your preferences.

Deleting cookies

Information on deleting or controlling cookies is available at www.allaboutcookies.org. However please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website.

Your browser software should however enable you to block cookies if you wish to, please refer to the instructions for your file management software to locate the file or directory that stores cookies.

Consent

By using the Gymnastics Ireland website, you consent to collection and use of any information you provide to us for the purposes described above. If we amend our privacy policy, any changes will be published on this website. If at any time you wish to update the information which we hold about you, or if you wish to stop receiving information from Gymnastics Ireland, please contact us.
